Late MARCH to early April

Food Concert
Chun-Liang Liu
@ Lot 19 Art Space
25-29 March

Food Concert is a performance that opens a space for participants to dwell on their relationships with food. Sensorial experiences, social relations and collective actions are central in the work. If we could store and cook intangible things such as love, what ingredients would you add or omit? A feast is expected—but will you eat what you have no control over making?

Panel: Love the art, hate the artist?

Tuesday March 26th

6 – 7:30

Join a panel including Gallery Director Louise Tegart, Dr Roberta Crisci-Richardson, Associate Professor Kate-MacNeill and Associate Professor Carole Wilson as they tackle questions of how far the personal history of artists should inform responses to their art and whether the morals of today should guide our responses to art created in different eras.
